

SOME TOWNS IN TEXAS

CLEBURNE.

Cleburne, Texas, Nov. 27.—The town has been thrown in mourning on account of all the wood yards being out of coal for the first time in their history. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall twin babies, a boy and a girl. Tom Lee, Jr., was out in several places about the head at the Cleburne Compress by Ira Smith from Brenham. Miss Beulah Hubbard has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Hickman's infant died last week. Mrs. Hoyt of Fort Worth is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Fortune. Mrs. L. B. Small is visiting in Fort Worth. Mr. Ernest Griffin and Miss Jay of Fort Worth were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cosines Saturday. Rev. Joseph A. Brown officiated. Mrs. Willie Smith has returned from Dallas. Mr. Willie Wilson left for Oklahoma City, last week. He expects to make his home. Mrs. Maggie Jones of Palestine, is visiting her sister Mrs. Beatrice Parker. Mr. Johnny Johnson was the guest of his wife last week. Mrs. Sewilla Johnson, Mrs. Mamie Beasley and Mr. Rudy Williams of Fort Worth were in the city Sunday. Mr. Tom Smith was called to the bedside of his wife, who was very sick. Mrs. Elvira King and daughters of Dallas are visiting her father, Mr. S. I. Griffin. Mr. Ewell of Alvarado, was his sister's guest Sunday. Mrs. Ola Williams, quite a number of years ago, the church sisters have their church a day's work which amounted to several dollars. Madams Annie Wesley and Annie Tyler spent Tuesday in Dallas. Mrs. A. L. Brown's mother of Muskogee, is visiting her. Mrs. Fannie Edmundson, visited in Grandview, Sunday. Mrs. A. D. Key, G. W. C. of the Courts of Caliente made her annual visit to Queen Star Court and Josephine Salome Court Wednesday. Mr. T. H. Wise attended the annual conference at Gainesville last week. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison of Covertown, were guests of her brother, Saturday, Mr. Jackson.

MARSHALL.

Marshall, Texas, Nov. 27.—Mr. Henderson Davis, one of Marshall's most highly esteemed citizens was run down by a T. & P. train and was killed. His neck was broken, his back, head crushed, death was instantly. His remains were carried to Woodlawn and after being identified were taken to his people near Marshall. He had been for several months suffering with a demoralized mind. His funeral was at 10 o'clock Sunday morning at the Methodist church. Rev. Elsie Fort attending. Little Bernice Ragland, who was run down by an automobile and seriously hurt died at Kahn Memorial Hospital, laid to rest in the Mack Johnson cemetery.

EASTLAND.

Eastland, Texas, Nov. 27.—Madam Page, the proprietor of the Billieville hotel boarded the East bound T. & P. for St. Louis on business. Mrs. P. Moore of Sherman, Texas, is in the city visiting her husband, Mr. P. Moore. Rev. C. Phillips of Ranter, Texas, preached an excellent sermon for us last Sunday, Nov. 9th. The B. Y. P. U. president, was delighted to have him to instruct and preside as chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Carrington of Dallas, have opened a first class, up-to-date family grocery store in the city, which is a great credit to Eastland at Well Billieville hotel. The Arthur Taylor cleaning and pressing shop is now open to the credit of the city for colored. Mrs. M. Clarkson, the sister of Madam Billie Page, returned to Dallas Sunday. Services Sunday, Nov. 16th, funeral was at the home of Mrs. P. E. Bledsoe. Rev. Miles W. Jenkins, is in the city. An excellent Sunday school was conducted by J. M. Goodwin, president of B. Y. P. U., also met at 5:30 p. m. which was successful. Rev. M. W. Jenkins delivered a soul stirring sermon at 8 p. m., two souls were added to the church, collection $75.00. Miss Marie Payne is in the city, visiting Mrs. L. C. Collier. Rev. W. Jenkins and company have added four new rooms to the credit of Jenkinsville addition. The T. & P. railway company is enlarging the colored waiting room for the commendation of colored passengers in Eastland. Mistress Mary Henry was on the sick list last week. Sister Jackson was present in B. Y. P. U. Mrs. T. C. Thornald, Bertha and Mr. Alex were the first visitors to the pastors new study room.

You will always get the Mrs. W. You can always get the Dallas Express Saturday at the agent's office at Jenkinsville addition.

PINELAND.

Pineland, Texas, Nov. 27.—Sunday school was good yesterday at all churches. Rev. M. Harris was at his post Sunday. The pastor of Pine Grove and Sister M. Lewis, our District Missionary were with us last week. In our home, Mission raised $4.45. Mrs. Dora Moore is on the sick list this week. Mrs. Jennie Battelliff is taking a ten days' treatment from the doctor of Jasper.

WHITEWRIGHT.

Whitewright, Texas, Nov. 27.—Sunday school was good at both churches Sunday. Rev. G. E. Patterson was at his post since he has given his time to the people of Whitewright and the members of the C. M. E. church. Miss Vivian Hynes is here visiting Mrs. R. V. Deloney. Mrs. D. H. Deloney is on the sick list. Mrs. Daisy Allen is improving. Mr. E. A.

OKMULGEE.

Okmulgee, Okla., Nov. 27.—The Langston University foot ball team was here Saturday to play the Dunbar high school team an interesting game was played. The scores being seven and seven which was a tie.

Mrs. Allie Wallace has as guest her sister, Mrs. Blue of Muskogee and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Martin of Chicago, Ill.

A number of the high school pupils entertained in honor of the Langston boys at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benson. Every one reported having an excellent time.

Mrs. Crumie of Chandler, Okla., is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. S. A. Gates of Delaware avenue.

Mr. Louis Arbuckle, who was severely hurt when struck by the train a few weeks ago, is slowly recuperating.

Miss Hasye Smallwood, one of the county teachers was here from Haskell, Okla., on a business trip, Saturday.

Mrs. Arteria Loman departed for Los Angeles, Cal., Wednesday to join her husband, who anxiously awaits her arrival. The Annual Conference of the C. M. E. church will convene with St. Paul C. M. E. church, Wednesday. Bishop Cleaves will preside. Rev. H. H. Edmunds, the pastor of C. M. E. church has everything in readiness for the conference.

Rev. J. O. Murphy, District Supt. of the Muskogee district of M. E. church held quarterly conference with Rev. Maddows congregation Saturday and Sunday.

The rally at M. E. Church at Weleka, last Sunday was quite successful, nearly three hundred dollars was raised. Mrs. P. Collins of Tulsa, spent pleasant hours here a guest of her sister, Mrs. L. Dowdie of 1015 E. 2nd street.

Remember the news box at 515 E. 5th street. Write plainly only race news desired. See the agent for rates. Subscription, job work of any kind.

We appreciate the interest our Business men, lawyers, doctors, ministers, teachers, laborers and other classes of people take in aiding the spread of Negro newspapers among our people. That fine spirit of race loyalty is gaining ground fast in this section.

MCKINNEY.

McKinney, Texas, Nov. 27.—Rev. J. Williams has returned from the West, after having spent several months. He preached a wonderful sermon at the Christian church at 4 p. m., his text, "Get Out of Thy Country and From Thy Kindred," Gen. 12:1.

MART.

Mart, Texas, Nov. 27.—Services were good at Rocky Creek, Sunday. You will find the Express at J. H. Doney's shoe shop every Saturday. If you have any news worth while see me.

S. L. GASTON, Reporter.

ROCKWALL.

Rockwall, Texas, Nov. 27.—Sunday school was on time at St. Paul A. M. E. church, Rev. G. W. Nelson was at his post.

Presiding elder A. G. Winn, was in the city, 21st instant, on official business. Mrs. Mattie Dillard entertained the Missionary sisters at her home for the benefit of St. Paul A. M. E. church it was a success. Mrs. E. Johnson and Mrs. R. Kirtrell went to Dallas.

Miss Emma Walker of Denton worshipped with us.

TEAGUE.

Teague, Texas, Nov. 27.—Sunday school was well attended Sunday at all churches. Rev. J. P. Palmes preached to a large crowd. Mrs. Gertrude Hall and Miss Martha Rogers returned home last Monday carrying little Miss Varie Brewer back with them to spend a while with her newly married sister.

FORNEY.

Forney, Texas, Nov. 27.—Mt. Zion Sunday was well attended at all churches. Rev. P. Mitchell was at his post Sunday and had noble rally. Mrs. L. W. Williams and son made a flying trip to Terrell, Sunday. Willie Williams died Nov. 14, at Daugherty Lake.

LUFKIN.

Lufkin, Texas, Nov. 27.—Prof. J. E. Robinson, State Deputy of the American Woodmen passed through the city en route to Corsicana to attend the State Lodge. While here he succeeded in writing up several new members. The good people of Long Chapel C. M. E. are pleased to have their beloved pastor for another year, Rev. W. T. Reagor.

Rev. Sister I. P. Hightower has returned to the city from Manning and has filled the pulpit five successive nights.

Mrs. Martha Johnson is out of the city on business.

Mr. Otto Davis and Miss Ada Marks were united in marriage at C. M. E. church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the presence of a host of friends and relatives. Rev. W. T. Reagor officiated. Mrs. Dora Greer of Shreveport, hair specialist is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fate Reese.

Mr. Tobie Burnell, a member of Camp No. 71 American Woodmen fell from a coal bin recently on the St. L. O. S. W. R. R., and was seriously hurt. He was sent to Texarkana hospital for treatment.

Mrs. E. L. Huntly has returned home after visiting her daughter in Gary, Ind.

Rev. Rowe of Groveton was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will Shelby last week. Rev. Sister Hope of Houston is in the city conducting a meeting at New Zion Baptist church. Prof. J. E. Robinson will visit Camp No. 71 American Woodmen again on December 8th to the many readers of Dallas Express, the agent has been instructed by the company to have all news in office not later than Monday noon, therefore please hand him your news not later than Sunday noon.

DENTON.

Denton, Texas, Nov. 27.—Rev. W. J. Henderson of the C. M. E. church was returned for his fifth year by the annual conference which convened last week in Gainesville.

Rev. B. W. Crawford and wife moved to Gainesville, Sunday, also Mr. West Jackson and wife.

Rev. J. P. Crockett of the A. M. E. church is busy getting full reports for the annual conference which convenes in Fort Worth. Rev. L. B. Skinner, pastor of Salem Baptist church, Dallas, preached a very able sermon, Sunday at 7:30 p. m. at A. M. E. church.

Mrs. Deborah Attaway of Durant, Oklahoma, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Paul. Master Lorenzo Attaway accompanied his mother.

Miss Emma D. Walker left Sunday for Rockwall to take charge of the school over which she was elected principal.

Miss Beulah Taylor is the new teacher at the Fred Douglas school. C. Annetta and Myrtle B. Moten spent the week-end with Myrtle and Elmore Elbert at Lewisville. Mr. Giles, Lawson of Parsons, Kansas, is here at the bedside of his son-in-law, Mr. I. Ross. Mrs. Mae Smith of Fort Worth, is the guest of Mrs. Mattie Shego.

Cards have been received announcing the approaching marriage of Dr. James Foster and Miss J. M. Stultz, the latter of Danville, Va.

ROSEBUD.

Rosebud, Texas, Nov. 27.—Services were largely attended at the St. Luke A. M. E. church.

Dr. J. H. Wamsley preached a logical sermon. Dr. Wamsley has been recently transferred from the Southwest Texas Conference to the Central Texas Conference and is now located in Rosebud, Texas, P. O. box 122.

Remember the news box at 515 E. 5th street. Write plainly only race news desired. See the agent for rates. Subscription, job work of any kind.

We appreciate the interest our Business men, lawyers, doctors, ministers, teachers, laborers and other classes of people take in aiding the spread of Negro newspapers among our people. That fine spirit of race loyalty is gaining ground fast in this section.

Second Baptist Church.

Dr. S. Montgomery, Pastor. Sunday school was at high water mark. Dr. I. W. Waters of Palestine, Texas, was with us and made things lively for the school at the 11:30 service, the pastor preached one of the most powerful sermons we have listened to from the subject, "Religious Activity Based upon the Certainty of the future life," text 1 Cor. 15:58. Long live this great leader to help our people at 3:30 p. m. Rev. J. P. Williams preached a great sermon to us. The house was again crowded at night and enjoyed another great sermon delivered by the pastor, subject, "Sign of Sincerity," text Acts 19:18. One was added to the fold of God. Collection for the day $553.30. Watch Second Baptist church go over the top next Sunday.

MAY PEARL.

May Pearl, Texas, Nov. 27.—Canaan Baptist church went over the top on Sunday. Sunday school was well attended. Deacon Stephens has returned from a business trip to North Texas, and report everything fine. Mrs. J. B. Pollard of Waco, was here Saturday and Sunday and worshipped at Canaan. Sister Leatha Williams, who has been sick for some time was carried back to Waxahatchie on Sunday to undergo another operation by Dr. S. C. Diggs.

Rev. Hutchinson, Waxahatchie worshipped at Canaan, Sunday. Mrs. Lila Thomas visited Red Oak, Sunday.

MINERAL WELLS.

Mineral Wells, Texas, Nov. 27.—Rev. Wright preached a fine sermon Sunday morning. Mrs. Della Gray is in Dallas for medical treatment.

Miss Ella Smith and brother, Oscar attended the conference in Gainesville, also, Mr. Ira Cass and wife. Thursday will be a day of Thanksgiving and fasting. Miss Cass left Friday for Ellis County to open school. Mr. Mitchell Rucker and baby spent a few hours in Mineral Wells, Sunday visiting relatives.

Mrs. Alex. Anderson of Bosqueville was buried Monday evening. The body of Mr. Dials, a former citizen of Waco, was buried from New Hope, Sunday evening.

Thanksgiving services were held in all the churches Thursday.

Arrivals: To Mr. and Mrs. Willie Carter, a fine girl was born last Saturday. To Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Williams, a fine boy.

Pay your poll tax and be a citizen. Prof. J. H. Hines attended a board meeting of the K. of P.'s in Dallas Friday and Saturday.

Rev. J. E. Williams and his congregation visited Second Baptist church Sunday evening. Dr. Williams seemed at his best.

SMITHVILLE.

Smithville, Texas, Nov. 27.—The public schools of the city and county will give two days' vacation for school there.

Mrs. Dema Stewart left Saturday for Hawkins, Texas, to visit her children, who are attending school there.

Miss Irma Woodards left Saturday for Hawkins, Texas, to attend school she was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Ben Johnson.

Miss Etter DeJournette left Sunday to take up her school.

Rev. J. A. Swann and Rev. James Carr will both preach their annual sermon Sunday night and will leave for Annual Conference.

WEATHERFORD.

Weatherford, Texas, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Taylor of Granbury and others spent Sunday with friends. Miss Lizzie Tucker made a flying trip to Granbury.

Rev. Jordan, the pastor of the Mt. Zion Baptist church was at his post Sunday. Rev. Roberts of the A. M. E. church preached at his post Sunday. Mrs. Leona Tucker is ill at her home. You will always find the Dallas Express at Noland's cafe.

GREENVILLE.

Greenville, Texas, Nov. 27.—The members of Clark Street Christian church are planning a thousand dollar rally for December 7, 1919.

Rev. L. H. Crawford has gone to Lexington, Ky., to hold a revival meeting.

Rev. T. H. Randles went Tuesday for the Central Texas, Annual Conference to be held at Jacksonville, Texas.

On Saturday, Nov. 15, about 7 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Shepherd, Mr. Shepherd passed away at the age of about 100 or more years old, leaves a wife and a few relatives to mourn his loss. His funeral was on Monday at 2:30 o'clock and was laid to rest in East Mount cemetery.

Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Simon and Miss W. Whaley attended quarterly meeting service at Neylandville, Sunday. P. E. preached at 11:30, collection $101.25. They had a very pleasant and sumptuous dinner at the home of Mr. J. H. Houston and Prof. P. A. Houston.

CHICKASHA.

Chickasha, Nov. 27.—The greatest of the Oklahoma Annual Conference of C. M. E. church was held here last week. Bishop N. C. Cleaves, president. All reports were round. The Conference was grand with the presence. Drs. J. C. Moore and J. A. Hamlett and several visitors from the Muskogee Conference.

The preaching was done by Drs. McClain, J. A. Hamlett, Harris, W. H. Nelson and Bishop Cleaves. The special part of the conference, and high and the finance ran over the top.

There is an impression left here that will last for ages. The pastor, and members spared no pains in making their best.

Rev. and Mrs. Ida Douglass are all smiles since the stork visited their home and left a boy and girl.

Rev. J. S. White and Mrs. Juanita Brown of Oklahoma City were married at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Reeves, 519 South 1st St., at 11:30 p. m. by Rev. M. C. Cobb. Mrs. Beulah Williams is on the sick list.

WACO.

Waco, Texas, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Amelia Fletcher of Chickasha, Okla., is here to visit her son, who is a mail clerk. They are with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbreath, S. 10th street. Last Tuesday night the Forum held a mass meeting at St. Paul. Every man and woman are urged to pay their poll tax, after program a free lunch was served. Mr. Newman Dudley was here last week arranging for the Simmons lecture.

Mr. Wm. McGinnis returned from S. Texas, where he purchased a carload of wood. Rev. Deslandes and family left last Saturday for Austin, his new charge.

Mrs. A. D. Key, Grand Worthy Counselor of the Courts paid her annual visit to Waco, Calanthians last Monday evening.

Mrs. W. P. Waite entertained her guest, Mrs. A. E. McMillan of Prairie View, last Wednesday evening. Quite an enjoyable time was had by a host of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Don Hubbard of Ranger, were in the city last week.

St. Paul M. E. church and all Methodists of the city are making great preparation to entertain the Central Texas Conference on the 10th of December. Friends of the church are asked to co-operate and help make this conference a success.

Central Texas Glee club sang before the B. Y. P. U., of the First Baptist church, while Sunday evening Central Texas College got ball team was the victor in a closely contested game with Moore High School last Friday, scores 12 to 5.

Mrs. Edna Anderson of Bosqueville was buried Monday evening. The body of Mr. Dials, a former citizen of Waco, was buried from New Hope, Sunday evening.

Thanksgiving services were held in all the churches Thursday.

Arrivals: To Mr. and Mrs. Willie Carter, a fine girl was born last Saturday. To Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Williams, a fine boy.

Pay your poll tax and be a citizen. Prof. J. H. Hines attended a board meeting of the K. of P.'s in Dallas Friday and Saturday.

Rev. J. E. Williams and his congregation visited Second Baptist church Sunday evening. Dr. Williams seemed at his best.

SMITHVILLE.

Smithville, Texas, Nov. 27.—The public schools of the city and county will give two days' vacation for school there.

Mrs. Dema Stewart left Saturday for Hawkins, Texas, to visit her children, who are attending school there.

Miss Irma Woodards left Saturday for Hawkins, Texas, to attend school she was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Ben Johnson.

Miss Etter DeJournette left Sunday to take up her school.

Rev. J. A. Swann and Rev. James Carr will both preach their annual sermon Sunday night and will leave for Annual Conference.

Weatherford, Texas, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Taylor of Granbury and others spent Sunday with friends. Miss Lizzie Tucker made a flying trip to Granbury.

Rev. Jordan, the pastor of the Mt. Zion Baptist church was at his post Sunday. Rev. Roberts of the A. M. E. church preached at his post Sunday. Mrs. Leona Tucker is ill at her home. You will always find the Dallas Express at Noland's cafe.

Lewin's Market

2411 ELM STREET

We Guarantee Everything We Sell

Turkeys 38c Per Pound

Bacon, sliced, pound	50c	Brisket Roast	15c
Ham, sliced	50c	Beef Stew	15c
Bacon, sliced, pound	50c	Boiling Beef	15c
Oleomargarine	35c	Veal Shoulder	15c
Whole Cured Ham	38c	Veal Brisket	12c
Brains, 15c, two set	25c	Veal Stew	10c
Pork Roast	30c	Veal Chops	20c
Pork Steak	30c	Veal Loin Steak	20c
Pork Sausage	30c	Veal Leg	22c
Lard Compound	30c	Veal Roll Roast	20c
Pig Liver	10c	Lamb or Mutton Stew	12c
Pig Snots	12c	Leg Mutton or Lamb	20c
Beef Rolled Roast	17c	Mutton or Lamb Chops	25c
Beef Rump Roast	20c	Lamb Shoulder	20c
Beef Rib Roast	22c	Mixed Sausage	20c
Prime Rib Roast	22c	Hamburger Meat	20c
Seven Steak	15c	Bologna Sausage	20c
Chuck Steak	15c	Weiner Sausage	20c
Veal Round Steak	35c	Frankfurter	20c
		Ground Bones for Chickens	5c

Delivery Made in Any part of the City

Phone Us Your Orders

(We Are Forcing the Meat Prices Down)

Automobile Delivery M. 1406, Auto Y 1406

Thanksgiving, so that the teachers may attend the State Teachers Association. Prof. Wm. Anderson made a trip to Brenham, account of the Texas Conference of the A. M. E. church in session there. Mrs. Easter Williams, one of St. Paul A. M. E. church was buried here last Thursday. Mr. Connie Anderson with wife and children, visited here Sunday, visiting his mother, who is ill, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clara Pendergrass.

Rev. R. E. Hutchinson, pastor of A. M. E. church here has been sent to Bastrop for the next year. The First Baptist church with Rev. A. Denmon as pastor had quite a successful rally last Sunday. School rapidly filling up, children returning from the cotton fields.

BEAUMONT.

Beaumont, Texas, Nov. 27.—Mr. R. Ellis and Miss Florence Moore were united in matrimony at her parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Moore, 1384 Evalon Street, Beaumont, Nov. 25, 1919 at 6:30 p. m. They left for their honeymoon to Houston to visit his relatives and friends and will return to their residence, 1308 Cable avenue, in a few days.

TERRELL.

Terrell, Texas, Nov. 27.—Miss Lucille Matthews left recently for Nashville, Tenn., to enter the Nurse training department at Meharry College. Relatives and friends of Mrs. Clara Carter are glad to see her in Terrell again. Mrs. May Lee Burton of Oklahoma, is here visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jorey.

Service at Bethlehem church was good all day Sunday, collection $129.00.

Rev. F. C. Bledsoe of Tyler, Texas, filled the pulpit at New Hope church Sunday. He preached two helpful sermons. He is making an earnest appeal all over Texas for the co-operation of the pastors and the presidents.

Col. Roscoe Conklin Simmons will lecture at the city hall, Friday night, Dec. 5th. Col. Roscoe Simmons is one of the best Negro orators in America.

RIESEL.

Riesel, Texas, Nov. 27.—Service was well attended at the Sunset Baptist church Sunday. Rev. Lee, pastor, preached two powerful sermons. Collection $24.60. A number of the parents of the Sunset public school met last Tuesday night in a business meeting for the purpose of setting plans to elect a new school building which proved to be a success, $65.00 cash and more than $150.00 in pledge was received. The club will meet every Tuesday night in the Woodman's hall until we have raised sufficient means to build.

The National Woodmen will hold their big public installation at the hall on Saturday night, Dec. 6, 1919. Mr. H. Long, Mrs. Mamie Robinson made a business trip to Waco. Mr. C. C. Long and Mrs. Odessa Scott were married Saturday. Mrs. Eliza Dorsey, Mrs. Elcena Jackson, Mr. H. Kelly and family, Mr. Wm. Crane and family, Mr. A. J. Merritt, M. A. Cavi and Rev. J. Jones all visited Terrell, last week.

The W. H. M. S. of the New Zion Baptist church are giving a rally Sunday, Nov. 30. Rev. S. A. Grayson has been employed to preach for them. Everybody is invited to attend.

TAYLOR.

Taylor, Texas, Nov. 27.—Good services at the various churches Sunday. Rev. G. W. Anderson attended the District Conference at Brenham last week.

Dr. W. H. Cockrell made his usual week-end visit and left for his home in Brenham.

Rev. P. H. Jackson, arrived from Temple and left for a several days stay in Austin.

Mrs. Lomax of Ladonia is at the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Ben Arnold, who is critically ill.

Mrs. Mary Latham arrived from Houston. Mrs. Minerva Miles, the guest of her son, Mr. Harry Miles, left for her home in Hearne. Mr. E. F. Howard, suffered a painful accident Saturday night, when an automobile crashed into his buggy badly demolishing the vehicle.

Miss Minnie and Mr. Napoleon Reynolds of Mexia, spent the week with their brother, Prof. J. A. Reynolds and wife. The Misses Viola Morrow, Irah Rector, Erma Hendricks, Mrs. Webb Hatcher and Little Jessie Gregg went to Little, Sunday to witness the wedding of Miss Willie Meeks and Mr. Robert White. They reports a grand time.

Mrs. Louise Henson returned from Yoakum, where she spent a most enjoyable time attending the Annual Conference (M. E.).

Mr. Hathaway, Prof. Arts of Gonzales spent a pleasant evening at the residence of Prof. and Mrs. J. A. Reynolds.

Mrs. Webb Hatcher is spending a few days with her parents at Bastrop.

Mrs. Louise Henson left for Mexia, Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Reynolds. Mr. Chas. Campbell of Little, spent Sunday with his brother, Mr. Andrew Campbell.

OAK CLIFF.

Oak Cliff, Texas, Nov. 27.—Don't hold the reporter responsible for not getting your paper last week for we were short of papers. Mr. Chas. Smith on Cliff street, took very ill Saturday, but is much better now.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Johnson and Mrs. Katie Lewis are able to be out again.

Mr. W. M. Moore entertained his Sunday school class of little folks Sunday afternoon at 11:24 E. 9th street, after being instructed in Sunday school work they were served ice cream.

Mr